Domaine Albert Morot 2014 Beaune Toussaints 1er Cru

Beaune, Burgundy

Red wine from France

Drinking window: 2021 - 2028

Bright ruby-red. Black fruit and spice aromas are lifted by pungent calcaire minerality. A step up in texture from the Cent-Vignes but still distinctly dry, with tight tannins in need of patience. Still a touch of rusticity to the flavors of blackberry and licorice.

Stephen Tanzer. Tasting date: November 2016

Geoffroy Choppin de Janvry bottled his 2014s in December of 2015 because he “wanted to preserve the fruit” and did not want to leave the wines in fûts for a long time. “The 2015s have more structure to support a longer élevage,” he added.
